Wiske House

Dearest mother,

I hope I shall have more time to write a little later on when there are no exams or papers to be prepared.

I went to the Boston Symphony concert here last Wednesday. The music was the most wonderful I have ever heard. I wish the symphony were coming all six times.

Last night I had dinner with Julia Herrick, one of Mary Michel's friends from Oak Park. She is a dandy girl. Mary is coming over here from Holyoke for ~~the~~ Thanksgiving, and we three are going to do something together.

Mary Sig has got tickets for Betty and me for the Harvard-Indiana game for Sat. Oct. 29. She wants us to stay all night and get dates for us. Larry something or other, who came to the boat with Mary, has asked for a date with me. He goes to Boston Tech.

I have been studying so hard that I am all "fed up"; and took the evening off. Too much study takes all of the original ideas out of one.

I made Freshman squad one crew (40 out of 120 were eliminated). I have to go in strict training next week while they choose the crews. I have no hopes of making the "Eight" since I am a transfer, but am glad of the practice. I shall go out for crew again in the spring, and maybe I can do something next year. While we are in strict training we have to get showers sleep, starting no later than eleven, (2) eat nothing between meals except fruit & milk, (3) run 300 yards, (4) take a cold shower each day, (5) eat three meals, (6) and drink only one cup of coffee.

I am getting so much muscle
I am almost scared of myself.

Yes, I got the laundry case,
but as yet have had no occasion to return it. I think I left my
san. belt on my box in my closet. Whenever you send the other things, send it along, please.
I shall not need the basketball shoes now, since crew is nearly over.

I have been so busy I did not have time to finish yesterday. Prepared for Latin exam, which the professor decided not to give!

I am enclosing a sample of the collar which I think is at home. I need it for my brown dress.

Loads of love,
P.S. I need a cover for the ice
box. Hadn't I better get it here so it will match?
